Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL, LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain, in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmer to insure by this company, their property being less hazardous than otherwise, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all with an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur in the country, are caused by carelessness in the management of the property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by LEWIS THOMAS ALDRE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last four years we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—The meeting in the various assembly districts of this county to send delegates to the Mineral Point republican convention will be held to-day at 2 o'clock, P. M., for this district being called at the court house. It is desirable that a selection of delegates should be made that will give character to the convention nominating a candidate for the support of the people, and will, at the same time, inspire confidence and give satisfaction to the masses at home. A judicious start will be of material aid in future movements.

SENATOR DOUGLAS IN CHICAGO.—The admirers of senator Douglas have professed the most unbounded confidence that when he came to meet his constituents face to face, the single-handed power of the "little giant" would prove equal to allaying the popular indignation against the Nebraska outrage, and that all the stout words which have been said against it and its architect, in his absence, would have to be eaten by those who uttered them, when once the senator should be released from his post at Washington and have leisure to attend to their cases. Well! the "vindication meeting" came off at Chicago on Friday evening last, and for once the potent demagogue from Illinois stood powerless before an abused, misrepresented and outraged constituency.

The Tribune states that no skill, no diplomacy, no expense were spared by the office-holders and toadies of the national administration to get up the affair and to have it result by fair means or foul in the endorsement of Douglas by Chicago. The railroad trains brought in hundreds of Douglas men from the country, from as far south as Springfield, that their presence might intimidate the citizens—a special police of twelve men from each ward was organized as a special body guard—twenty-five cents per head were paid to Irishmen to attend the meeting, and all that weeks of previous labor and hundreds of dollars expended could effect was used to render the affair successful and imposing.

On the other hand the flags of the shipping in port were displayed at half mast during the entire afternoon previous to the meeting—and at a quarter past six the bells of the city commenced to toll, and for more than an hour continued to fill the air with sounds befitting the popular sense of the disgrace which their senator was seeking to impose on the city.

When the hour of meeting arrived, Mr. Douglas had the satisfaction of meeting a crowd of about eight thousand people, a large majority of whom were not invited guests. His speech, following the Tribune's account, may be summed up as follows: For about one hour the senator was listened to with a good degree of patience and forbearance—though every pro-slavery sentiment was received with unmistakable evidence of indignation, and disarmed by groans and hisses.

"After speaking for something more than an hour, and finding that the people regarded him very much as the people of the Revolution would have regarded Benedict Arnold, he came among them for the purpose of vindicating his treachery, and that they treated him in pretty much the same way as Arnold would have been treated. Douglas lost his temper, which up to this time he had preserved pretty well, and began to rave, and at the end of another hour his downfall was complete."

"He finally said that as he saw it was useless for him to proceed, he would leave the stand. Cries of good! good! He said, however, that he would not give it up! That he would speak again to the people, and that they should hear him. He would now leave the stand and resign it to the mob! He went off with his hat on his head, his face distorted with rage, and shaking his fist at the audience."

The democratic senatorial and assembly convention last Saturday chose Isaac Woodie and James Neil as delegates from the senatorial, and M. C. Smith from the assembly district. A set of resolutions very decidedly anti-administration and anti-Nebraska were introduced by a committee, but were considerably softened down or laid upon the table by the convention, though an anti-Nebraska character was retained.

FINE FRUIT.—We have been shown some very fine apples from the garden of Mr. Charles Stevens, in this city. Much of what he was raising was stolen by the thieving boys who infest the city, and a large share of the balance were picked while green, to keep them. Still those which were allowed to stay on the tree long enough to test their character, show them to be of large size and superior quality, and give hopes that when enough shall be raised for the boys and the growers, we shall have a home supply equal to the best imported.

A HINT.—If those people who put bells on their cows would keep them home at night, they would keep their nuisances where they belong and not impose them upon their neighbors. Besides, it might prevent a summary abatement by those suffering the infliction. So we are told.

Persons wishing to purchase building lots in this city, are invited, to notice the advertisement in to-day's paper, offering two for sale.

C. K. Watkins and Judge Hubbell have had a controversy in the court of the latter, which ended in Watkins requesting his name might be stricken from the roll of attorneys in this court, as he should practice in it no longer.

Post Office Removed.—The post office in this city has been removed to the brick building of Lawrence, Strong & Co., opposite the American House.

BOOK ITEMS.

A JOURNEY TO CENTRAL AFRICA. By BAYARD TAYLOR. G. P. Putnam & Co., 10 Park Place, New York.

We herald the announcement of this new work with more than ordinary pleasure. Comment upon it seems almost unnecessary, as very few we presume who have ever heard of the accomplished author, will neglect to provide themselves with a copy of this most pleasing and attractive work. In reading this fanciful and poetical philosophical, "Nile Notes of the Howadi," we were steeped in a delicious dream of beauty, entrancing and almost bewildering, and after laying aside the fascinating book, could have no recollection but a confusion of glorious imagery, as if one had looked through a Claude Lorraine glass, until his eyes ached.

In the volume before us there is no such cloying sweetness, no putting a cork jacket of rhetoric under the arms of the reader to buoy him up.

Those who have enjoyed the pleasure of meeting Mr. Taylor and conversing with him upon the subject of his travels, must remember the easy non-chalance with which he refers to incident by flood and field. Just so he writes; combining poet and artist, he worships with a calm and chaste enthusiasm at the shrine of nature and beauty, and we are content with his reflections. There is enough of poetry, pathos, humor and sentiment in them, combined with keen observation, blended by a light and airy grace of style, to stock a dozen would be travelers' note books. Mr. Taylor, in chivalric loftiness of purpose, taste, energy, love of the beautiful and all that is heroic, would have made a fitting companion for Sir Walter Raleigh.

Reader, you will find his book at Sutherland's.

COOL.—The following reply of the Milwaukee Sentinel to our article of Saturday, exposing a misrepresentation by a garbled quotation from us, is refreshingly cool in this hot weather:

PLEASANT NEIGHBORS.—Our brief reference to the silly story, published in the Janesville Gazette, of an avowed determination on the part of the M. & M. R. company "to drive business from Janesville to the line of the road north," provokes from the Gazette a very angry attack upon the Sentinel. This is so much a matter of course in that quarter, that we shall not waste time in answering it. It is sufficient to know that the fiction itself has been exploded in the Gazette's columns by the card of Mr. Pease. If it is any relief to our unhappy cotemporary, under these circumstances, to blaze away at the Sentinel, it is entirely welcome to continue the sport just as long as its powder and patience last.

Of course, there is very little use of "blazing away" at a paper which is first willing to misrepresent a cotemporary, and then when the misrepresentation is exposed, altogether refuses a correction and adds to the original offense. The readers of the Sentinel are permitted to see only what suits the purposes of its conductors, and are seldom permitted to learn from its columns the real merits of any controversy in which it is engaged. "Powder and patience" would be wholly lost under such circumstances, and we shall allow the Sentinel to pursue its usual course unmolested, unless a more than ordinary aggravated case provokes another exposure.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—New and dangerous counterfeiters are now offering in our city; viz: $5 on the Oneida Valley Bank, Madison Co., N. Y.; vignette, female and shield; it is the old counterfeit plate of the $3 bills altered to $5. The other is $10 on the Bank of Corning, N. Y.; vignette, two females and portrait of Washington; being the counterfeit ten of Lockport, altered to Corning, and is well calculated to deceive.

JANESVILLE CITY BANK.

For several days we have had lying upon our table, a bank note plate delineator from the office of John S. Dye's Bank Mirror, Cincinnati and New York, which must be extremely useful in cases of counterfeit like the above. The "Delineator" is designed to give an accurate description of every genuine note issued by every bank in the United States and British North America. By a comparison of the note as given in the "Delineator" with the bill offered, its character can be easily ascertained, if it is an alteration from a lower to a higher denomination, or from one bank to another. The first number of the Delineator only has been issued, containing 40 pages, and a description of the bills of the New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Brooklyn, Williamsburgh and Jersey City banks. The entire series it is calculated will require 500 pages, and the numbers will be issued as they can be prepared. In connection with this, Mr. Dye publishes his semi-monthly "Mirror," a book of counterfeit plates and a coin chart manual, all for $2 a year. New York office, No. 2, Maiden Lane; Cincinnati office, 43 Third street.

SHIPMENT OF FLOUR.—Jackson & Smith have shipped a thousand barrels of flour from new wheat since the late harvest. This is probably doing more than any other mill in the state, of the same capacity as theirs.

The whig state central committee of Michigan have called a state convention to meet at Marshall, the 4th of October next, to nominate candidates for state officers. The Detroit Tribune says:

"The convention has not been called to gratify the factions purposes of those who wish to use it to aid the locofocos to retain their power, but for the sole purpose, we feel satisfied, of contributing to the success of the independent, anti-administration ticket, by re-nominating it. This will be done beyond a doubt, if true whigs take the matter in hand, as we are sure they will."

THE LAST RESORT.—The editor of the Kentucky Flag has been assaulted in the streets of Lexington by an Arkansas ruffian, act on by the Ward family, for publishing an article in relation to the murder of Butler, by that hopeful sprig of nobility, Matt Ward. The next move will be to take some one else who has offended the dignity of this "chivalrous" family.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—One of the largest congressional conventions ever held in Northern Illinois, took place at Rockford on Wednesday last. It resulted from a call of some fifty or more citizens (whigs, democrats, free-soilers and abolitionists) of the first district, who felt the absolute necessity of abandoning their petty quarrels about party, and of uniting, as one man, to resist, now and for all time to come the aggressive spirit of the pro-slavery party of the country. The proceedings of that convention will be found in another column of this paper; and to the point, even they fail to give an adequate idea of the spirit which actuated the masses who constituted the convention. The number present was not less than ten or twelve hundred, a large part of whom were regularly appointed delegates from other counties—every part of the district, from the lake to the Mississippi river, being largely and ably represented. In the organization, there was some little jealousy manifested, each of the members of the various old parties fearing lest he might be inveigled into resolutions intended for the benefit of persons in an opposite party. But when the principal actors came to understand each other all discord ceased. The chairman, Dr. Lyman, who is a fine specimen of a man, and an old Tammany Hall democrat, acted in a spirit of magnanimity which won its way to all hearts. His eloquence and ingenuously were irresistible. He said he had acted with the democratic party all of his life, and had frequently voted against his convictions, but he had done so the last time. He desired a union of all who were opposed to slavery and in favor of freedom, a union which would be permanent and ultimate in practical results. He was followed by ex-Gov. Bebb, a whig, in a similar spirit, urging the necessity of prompt and manly action to defeat the plotters against liberty. He showed that so far as a national whig party was concerned it had no existence beyond a name. While northern whigs had acted with northern democrats, the southern whig members of congress, almost without exception, had counseled with and supported Douglas and the administration in their attempts to perpetuate and extend slavery. He also showed that it was impossible, in the very nature of things, to have a national whig or national democratic party. Northern whigs and democrats coalesced on the only principles at issue, and southern whigs and democrats united against him. Slavery was the issue, and even though the people of the free states would have avoided it if they could have done so with honor to themselves, they were not permitted to do so. It was forced upon them by southern whigs and democrats, acting as a unit. He therefore saw no honorable or safe alternative but the formation of a party which should embrace all the anti-slavery elements of the union, and to such a party he was ready and willing to attach himself.

Rev. M. P. Sweet, of Peru, (formerly a whig candidate for congress in the Rockford district,) followed in an eloquent speech, which elicited rounds of applause. Hon. Thomas J. Turner, of Freeport, (former democratic member of congress from that district,) also spoke earnestly against the corruptions of the pro-slavery democratic party, and bore down with great severity upon Douglas and Pierce. He was not then prepared to say what he would do, but he could say that he would not vote any more for slavery. When the resolutions were introduced they were taken up seriatim, and adopted unanimously and with enthusiasm. Before their adoption, however, Charles M. Clure, esq., an old whig of McHenry county, made a sensible and well-timed speech in support of the distinct movement which the resolutions contemplated, and Hon. T. J. Turner and James Loop, esq., cordially gave their endorsement and adhesion. After the resolutions were adopted, the convention resolved to nominate a candidate for congress. Before doing which, however, Hon. E. B. Washburne was called upon the stand and in a powerful speech exposed the machinations of the slave power, as he had seen it working during his congressional career. He then complimented the convention for its boldness in cutting loose from all old political organizations, and declared that he stood with them on their platform ready hereafter to work as a republican. After Mr. W. closed a speech of nearly half an hour, it was moved that he be nominated by acclamation, which was carried unanimously, amid cheering and huzzas. Thus closed one of the most felicitous conventions we have ever attended, and it inaugurates a movement in Illinois which our confidence in the generous and noble impulses of the people make us believe will sweep over our prairies, and soon cause our state to stand as high, as the champion of liberty, as she has heretofore and does now stand low as the defender and propagator of slavery.—Chicago Tribune.

BUFFALO, August 20. A democratic convention was held here to-day, to elect four delegates to the Syracuse convention.

A good deal of excitement occurred, growing out of a double set of delegates, from the post office and custom house attempting to force their candidates upon the convention.—They were, however, defeated—the issue being on the attempt to elect Nebraska delegates.—Benjamin Welch, Jr., editor of the Republic, and a strong anti-Nebraska man, received 15 out of 18 votes. P. Dorsheimer defeated a post office candidate, and E. A. Maynard and John Hubbell are elected. All are opposed to the Nebraska bill. It is considered a withering rebuke for the attempt to Nebraskaize this anti-Nebraska city.

MILLER'S PATENT STEAM BRAKE.—Upon the invitation of our worthy townsman, HENRY MILLER, Esq., we, in company with a large number composed of editors, engineers, and railroad superintendents, took a short trip on the Pontiac railroad yesterday afternoon to witness the operation of "Miller's Patent Steam Brake." This invention, will we think, eventually do away with the present style of hand brakes in use. It is worked by means of a lever in the hands of the engineer. We are not able to describe it in detail, and so we will only give the result of our own observation.

The train was put under motion of thirty miles an hour, the signal for putting down the brake was given, and without the engine's being reversed at all, we were brought to a perfect standstill in twenty seconds. Much time is thus gained, and in case of anything being observed ahead on the track, the safety of the train is much enhanced by this brake, as the engineer can, without frightening any nervous old ladies with an awful shriek, stop the train instantly by letting steam into the brakes, and if danger be imminent, also reversing the engine. All present were highly gratified with the satisfactory evidence of its utility.

We learn from several engineers that when the pipes have been enlarged and the machinery perfected, the train can be stopped in a quarter of a mile, and without the least jar to the cars as under the old way. We were gratified at meeting among the excursionists, a large representation from the Great Western Railway.—Detroit Free Press.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The county agricultural fair takes place at Janesville, on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 13th and 14th. Such as intend to exhibit articles at that time, for sale or competition, should hurry up their preparations for the occasion. We expect to see Bebi and vicinity figure largely on the premium list. Horses and cattle, products of the field and garden, of mechanical skill, the ladies with their handiwork of use and ornament—let all be represented.—Beloit Journal.

From this it will be seen what our neighbors are invited to do, and what should be our own action in the matter. Heretofore many who have abstained from any participation in the fair, have afterwards expressed their regret, declaring that they might have exhibited something superior to what was awarded the premium. The only way in such a case is to enter as competitors, and if a really superior article can be shown, not allow an inferior one to obtain the credit. The fair, is a local one, and needs the co-operation of all to make it what it ought and may be made. We hope there will be this year a large increase of exhibitors and articles over the last. The trouble necessary to prepare and transport for exhibition will be well repaid in the increased attraction and interest of the fair.

The Cleveland Herald says that many of the elms in that city are leafless, and others dying, in consequence of a drought. The maples are thinning out, the locusts are injured by insects, and only the native oak and chestnut survive, and even their foliage is turning to a premature yellow. The earth is baked and dry, and in some localities in the country, farmers are cutting down trees to feed their cattle on the leaves.

Recorder Wilson of Chicago, during a recent sitting of his court, sentenced 26 men and women to the state prison for terms running from 1 to 10 years, and in addition 15 were convicted of county jail offences. No less than 74 indictments are still pending.

The paragraph we published a few days since, that Horace Greeley, Wm. B. Astor, P. T. Barnum, and other capitalists had purchased the row of buildings facing the Bowling Green, in New York, for the purpose of erecting there a mammoth hotel for the exclusive accommodation of colored people, is untrue. Some of the eastern dailies seem to be governed by the rule to publish a statement one day for the purpose of making a correction the next, and thus getting a paragraph for two.

PLEASANT GREETING.—The Wisconsin Finery, (a democratic organ published at Stevens Point by Gen. A. G. Ellis, a Pierce land officer,) thus pleasantly refers to some of its former political associates:

ACCOMPANIED.—Gov. Barlow and "the balance," in their journey over from the territory of democracy to pirates land—opposition to the administration of the government—are, it is said, to have the company of Hon. Ben. C. Eastman!

The report of the proceedings of the methodist conference in session at this place, for some reason unknown was not handed in for to-day's paper, and we are consequently unable to give it.

The banks of N. Y. city contracted $1,400,000 for the week ending on the 26th ult.—Of course the money market is tight.

The New York state loan for $1,000,000 was taken on the 31st of August, at 1,12 1/2, 16.

STEAMER LADY ELGIN SUNK.—This fine boat which left this port on Wednesday forenoon last with passengers and freight for Buffalo, struck a rock off Manitowoc during the night and sunk soon after reaching the pier at that place. She lies with the water up to her main deck. She had about 300 passengers on board at the time, all of whom were got ashore in safety. Mr. Ward, the clerk, arrived here yesterday afternoon on the Cleveland, to obtain the services of a steam pump. It is thought the Lady Elgin will be raised without much damage.—Chicago Tribune.

The Ohio State Journal publishes a letter to Samuel Galloway, signed by 152 prominent citizens of Licking county, inviting him to become the anti-Nebraska candidate for congress against Dr. Olds. A district convention to select a candidate, is to be held on the 30th inst. Galloway was beaten by Olds in 1852, by reason of a division in the whig ranks. Our friends are sure to be united at the coming election, and Olds will no doubt be defeated by a large majority.

GOING IT STRONG.—The steamers Ocean and Buckeye are making lively time between here and Cleveland, in running opposition. The Ocean yesterday advertised to carry passengers free, furnishing births in gent's cabin at 25 cents and state-rooms at 50 cents. Cheap enough.—Detroit Ad.

Janesville City Schools.

The clerks of the several school districts in the city of Janesville, will please bear in mind, that the revised school laws make it their duty, to report to the city superintendent of schools; by the fifteenth of September of each year. Said reports to be dated on the first day of the same month. For further particulars, see section 30 of the revised school laws. JAMES SUTHERLAND, Superintendent of schools, for the city of Janesville. Aug. 31st, 1854.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—The meeting in the various assembly districts of this county to send delegates to the Mineral Point republican convention will be held to-day at 2 o'clock, P. M., for this district being called at the court house. It is desirable that a selection of delegates should be made that will give character to the convention nominating a candidate for the support of the people, and will, at the same time, inspire confidence and give satisfaction to the masses at home. A judicious start will be of material aid in future movements.

SENATOR DOUGLAS IN CHICAGO.—The admirer of senator Douglas has professed the most unbounded confidence that when he came to meet his constituents face to face, the single-handed power of the "little giant" would prove equal to allaying the popular indignation against the Nebraska outrage, and that all the stout words which have been said against it and its architect, in his absence, would have to be eaten by those who uttered them, when once the senator should be released from his post at Washington and have leisure to attend to their cases. Well! the "vindication meeting" came off at Chicago on Friday evening last, and for once the potent demagogue from Illinois stood powerless before an abused, misrepresented and outraged constituency.

The Tribune states that no skill, no diplomacy, no expense were spared by the office-holders and toadies of the national administration to get up the affair and to have it result by fair means or foul in the endorsement of Douglas by Chicago. The railroad trains brought in hundreds of Douglas men from the country, from as far south as Springfield, that their presence might intimidate the citizens—a special police of twelve men from each ward was organized as a special body guard—twenty-five cents per head were paid to Irishmen to attend the meeting, and all that weeks of previous labor and hundreds of dollars expended could effect was used to render the affair successful and imposing.

On the other hand the flags of the shipping in port were displayed at half mast during the entire afternoon previous to the meeting—and at a quarter past six the bells of the city commenced to toll, and for more than an hour continued to fill the air with sounds befitting the popular sense of the disgrace which their senator was seeking to impose on the city.

When the hour of meeting arrived, Mr. Douglas had the satisfaction of meeting a crowd of about twenty thousand people, a large majority of whom were not invited guests. His speech, following the Tribune's account, may be summed up as follows: For about one hour the senator was listened to with a good degree of patience and forbearance—though every pro-slavery sentiment was received with unmistakable evidences of indignation, and disarmed by groans and hisses.

"After speaking for something more than an hour, and finding that the people regarded him very much as the people of the Revolution would have regarded Benedict Arnold, he came among them for the purpose of vindicating his treachery, and that they treated him in pretty much the same way as Arnold would have been treated, Douglas lost his temper, which up to this time he had preserved pretty well, and began to rave, and at the end of another hour his downfall was complete."

"He finally said that as he saw it was useless for him to proceed, he would leave the stand. Cries of good! good! He said, however, that he would not give it up! That he would speak again to the people, and that they should hear him. He would now leave the stand and resign it to the mob! He went off with his hat on his head, his face distorted with rage, and shaking his fist at the audience."

The democratic senatorial and assembly convention last Saturday chose Isaac Woodie and James Neil as delegates from the senatorial, and M. C. Smith from the assembly district. A set of resolutions very decidedly anti-administration and anti-Nebraska were introduced by a committee, but were considerably softened down or laid upon the table by the convention, though an anti-Nebraska character was retained.

FINE FRUIT.—We have been shown some very fine apples from the garden of Mr. Charles Stevens, in this city. Much of what he was raising was stolen by the thieving boys who infest the city, and a large share of the balance were picked while green, to keep them. Still those which were allowed to stay on the tree long enough to test their character, show them to be of large size and superior quality, and give hopes that when enough shall be raised for the boys and the growers, we shall have a home supply equal to the best imported.

A HINT.—If those people who put bells on their cows would keep them home at night, they would keep their nuisances where they belong and not impose them upon their neighbors. Besides, it might prevent a summary abatement by those suffering the infliction. So we are told.

Persons wishing to purchase building lots in this city, are invited to notice the advertisement in to-day's paper, offering two for sale.

C. K. Watkins and Judge Hubbell have had a controversy in the court of the latter, which ended in Watkins requesting his name might be stricken from the roll of attorneys in that court, as he should practice in it no longer.

POST OFFICE REMOVED.—The post office in this city has been removed to the brick building of Lawrence, Strong & Co., opposite the American House.

BOOK ITEMS.
A JOURNEY TO CENTRAL AFRICA, &c. BY BATAARD TAYLOR. G. P. Putnam & Co., 10 Park Place, New York.

We herald the announcement of this new work with more than ordinary pleasure. Comment upon it seems almost unnecessary, as very few we presume have ever heard of the accomplished author, will neglect to provide themselves with a copy of this most pleasing and attractive work. In reading this fanciful and poetically philosophical, "Nile Notes of the Howadi," we were steeped in a delicious dream of beauty, entrancing and almost bewildering, and after laying aside the fascinating book, could have no recollection but a confusion of glorious imagery, as if one had looked through a Claude Lorraine glass, until his eyes ached.

In the volume before us there is no such cloying sweetness, no putting a cork jacket of rhetoric under the arms of the reader to buoy him up.

Those who have enjoyed the pleasure of meeting Mr. Taylor and conversing with him upon the subject of his travels, must remember the easy non-chalance with which he refers to incident by flood and field. Just so he writes; combining poet and artist, he worships with a calm and chaste enthusiasm at the shrine of nature and beauty, and we are content with his reflections. There is enough of poetry, pathos, humor and sentiment in them, combined with keen observation, blended by a light and airy grace of style, to stock a dozen would be travelers' note books. Mr. Taylor, in chivalric loftiness of purpose, taste, energy, love of the beautiful and all that is heroic, would have made a fitting companion for Sir Walter Raleigh.

COOL.—The following reply of the Milwaukee Sentinel to our article of Saturday, exposing a misrepresentation by a garbled quotation from us, is refreshingly cool in this hot weather:

PLEASANT NEIGHBORS.—Our brief reference to the silly story, published in the Janesville Gazette, of an avowed determination on the part of the M. & M. E. R. company "to drive business from Janesville to the line of the road north," provokes from the Gazette a very angry attack upon the Sentinel. This is so much a matter of course in that quarter, that we shall not waste time in answering it. It is sufficient to know that the fiction itself has been exploded in the Gazette's columns by the card of Mr. Pease. If it is any relief to our unhappy cotemporary, under these circumstances, to blaze away at the Sentinel, it is entirely welcome to continue the sport just as long as its powder and patience last.

Of course, there is very little use of "blazing away" at a paper which is first willing to misrepresent a cotemporary, and then when the misrepresentation is exposed, altogether refuses a correction and adds to the original offence. The readers of the Sentinel are permitted to see only what suits the purposes of its conductors, and are seldom permitted to learn from its columns the real merits of any controversy in which it is engaged. "Powder and patience" would be wholly lost under such circumstances, and we shall allow the Sentinel to pursue its usual course unmolested, unless a more than ordinarily aggravated case provokes another exposure.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—New and dangerous counterfeiters are now offering in our city; viz: $5 on the Oneida Valley Bank, Madison, Co., N. Y.; vignette, female and shield; it is the old counterfeit plate of the $5 bills altered to $5. The other is $10 on the Bank of Corning, N. Y.; vignette, two females and portrait of Washington; being the counterfeit ten of Lockport, altered to Corning, and is well calculated to deceive.

JANESVILLE CITY BANK.

For several days we have had lying upon our table, a bank note plate delineator from the office of John S. Dye's Bank, Mirror, Cincinnati and New York, which must be extremely useful in cases of counterfeiters like the above. The "Delineator" is designed to give an accurate description of every genuine note issued by every bank in the United States and British North America. By a comparison of the note as given in the "Delineator" with the bill offered, its character can be easily ascertained, if it is an alteration from a lower to a higher denomination, or from one bank to another. The first number of the Delineator only has been issued, containing 40 pages, and a description of the bills of the New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Brooklyn, Williamsburgh and Jersey City banks. The entire series "it is calculated will require 500 pages, and the numbers will be issued as they can be prepared. In connection with this, Mr. Dye publishes his semi-monthly "Mirror," a book of counterfeit plates and a coin chart manual, all for $2 a year. New York office, No. 2, Maiden Lane; Cincinnati office, 43 Third street.

SHIPMENT OF FLOUR.—Jackman & Smith have shipped a thousand barrels of flour from new wheat since the late harvest. This is probably doing more than any other mill in the state, of the same capacity as theirs.

The whig state central committee of Michigan have called a state convention to meet at Marshall, the 4th of October next, to nominate candidates for state officers. The Detroit Tribune says:

"The convention has not been called to gratify the factious purposes of those who wish to use it to aid the locofocos to retain their power, but for the sole purpose, we feel satisfied, of contributing to the success of the independent, anti-administration ticket, by re-nominating it. This will be done beyond a doubt, if true whigs take the matter in hand, as we are sure they will."

THE LAST RESORT.—The editor of the Kentucky Flag has been assaulted in the streets of Lexington by an Arkansas ruffian, set on by the Ward family, for publishing an article in relation to the murder of Butler, by that hopeful sprig of nobility, Matt Ward. The next move will be to take some one else who has offended the dignity of this "chivalrous" family.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—One of the largest congressional conventions ever held in Northern Illinois, took place at Rockford on Wednesday last. It resulted from a call of some fifty or more citizens (whigs, democrats, free-soilers and abolitionists) of the first district, who felt the absolute necessity of abandoning their petty quarrels about party, and of uniting, as one man, to resist, now and for all time to come the aggressive spirit of the pro-slavery party of the country. The proceedings of that convention will be found in another column of this paper; but though the resolutions are clear, decided, and to the point, even they fail to give an adequate idea of the spirit which actuated the masses who constituted the convention. The number present was not less than ten or twelve hundred, a large part of whom were regularly appointed delegates from other counties—every part of the district, from the lake to the Mississippi river, being largely and ably represented. In the organization, there was some little jealousy manifested, each of the members of the various old parties feeling lest he might be inveigled into resolutions intended for the benefit of persons in an opposite party. But when the principal actors came to understand each other all discord ceased. The chairman, Dr. Lyman, who is a fine specimen of a man, and an old Tammany Hall democrat, acted in a spirit of magnanimity which won its way to all hearts. His eloquence and ingenuously were irresistible. He said he had acted with the democratic party all of his life, and had frequently voted against his convictions, but he had done so the last time. He desired a union of all who were opposed to slavery and in favor of freedom—a union which would be permanent and ultimate in practical results. He was followed by ex-Gov. Bobb, a whig, in a similar spirit, urging the necessity of prompt and manly action to defeat the plotters against liberty. He showed that so far as a national whig party was concerned it had no existence beyond a name. While northern whigs had acted with northern democrats, the southern whig members of congress, almost without exception, had counselled with and supported Douglas and the administration in their attempts to perpetuate and extend slavery. He also showed that it was impossible, in the very nature of things, to have a national whig or national democratic party. Northern whigs and democrats coalesced on the only principles at issue, and southern whigs and democrats united against him. Slavery was the issue, and even though the people of the free states would have avoided it if they could have done so with honor to themselves, they were not permitted to do so. It was forced upon them by southern whigs and democrats, acting as a unit. He therefore saw no honorable or safe alternative but the formation of a party which should embrace all the anti-slavery elements of the union, and to such a party he was ready and willing to attach himself.

Rev. M. P. Sweet, of Peru, (formerly a whig candidate for congress in the Rockford district), followed in an eloquent speech, which elicited rounds of applause. Hon. Thomas J. Turner, of Freeport, (former democratic member of congress from that district), also spoke earnestly against the corruption of the pro-slavery democratic party, and bore down with great severity upon Douglas and Pierce. He was not then prepared to say what he would do, but he could say that he would not vote any more for slavery. When the resolutions were introduced they were taken up seriatim, and adopted unanimously and with enthusiasm. Before their adoption, however, Charles McClure, esq., an old whig of McHenry county, made a sensible and well-timed speech in support of the distinct movement which the resolutions contemplated, and Hon. T. J. Turner and James Loop, esq., cordially gave their endorsement and adhesion. After the resolutions were adopted, the convention resolved to nominate a candidate for congress. Before doing which, however, Hon. E. B. Washburne was called upon the stand and in a powerful speech exposed the machinations of the slave power, as he had seen it working during his congressional career. He then complimented the convention for its boldness in cutting loose from all old political organizations, and declared that he stood with them on their platform ready hereafter to work as a republican. After Mr. W. closed a speech of nearly half an hour, it was moved that he be nominated by acclamation, which was carried unanimously, amid cheering and buzzes.

Thus closed one of the most felicitous conventions we have ever attended, and it inaugurates a movement in Illinois which our confidence in the generous and noble impulses of the people make us believe will sweep over our prairies, and soon cause our state to stand as high, as the champion of liberty, as she has heretofore and does now stand low as the defender and propogator of slavery.—Chicago Tribune.

BUFFALO, August 20.

A democratic convention was held here to-day, to elect four delegates to the Syracuse convention.

A good deal of excitement occurred, growing out of a double set of delegates, from the post office and custom house attempting to force their candidates upon the convention. They were, however, defeated—the issue being on the attempt to elect Nebraska delegates. Benjamin Welch, Jr., editor of the Republic, and a strong anti-Nebraska man, received 16 out of 18 votes. P. Dorshimer defeated a post office candidate, and E. A. Maynard and John Hubbell are elected. All are opposed to the Nebraska bill.

It is considered a withering rebuke for the attempt to Nebraskaize this anti-Nebraska city!

MILLER'S PATENT STEAM BRAKE.—Upon the invitation of our worthy townsman, HENRY MILLER, Esq., we, in company with a large number composed of editors, engineers, and railroad superintendents, took a short trip on the Pontiac railroad yesterday afternoon to witness the operation of "Miller's Patent Steam Brake." This invention, we will think, eventually do away with the present style of hand brakes in use. It is worked by means of a lever in the hands of the engineer. We are not able to describe it in detail, and so we will only give the result of our own observation.

The train was put under motion of thirty miles an hour, the signal for putting down the brake was given, and, without the engine's being reversed at all, we were brought to a perfect standstill in twenty seconds. Much time is thus gained, and, in case of anything being observed ahead on the track, the safety of the train is much enhanced by this brake, as the engineer can, without frightening any nervous old ladies with an awful shriek, stop the train instantly by letting steam into the brakes, and if danger be imminent, also reversing the engine. All present were highly gratified with the satisfactory evidence of its utility.

We learn from several engineers that when the pipes have been enlarged and the machinery perfected, the train can be stopped in a quarter less time, and without the least jar to the cars as under the old way. We were gratified at meeting among the excursionists, a large representation from the Great Western Railway.—Detroit Free Press.

Resolved: That shareholders who were such on the 20th July 1854, who have not paid the installments which were called for by resolution of that date and which are now due, shall be considered as having sold their shares to the company on the first Monday of September 1854. Resolved: That an assessment of Ten Dollars on each share of stock of this company be and the same is hereby required to be paid to the treasurer of the company or his order at their office in the city of Janesville, Wis., on or before the second day of October 1854, and in default of payment the stock will be forfeited and all previous payments thereon.

Resolved: That the above resolutions be and the same are hereby required to be published in the Janesville Gazette, a weekly newspaper printed and published in the city of Janesville, Wis., on or before the second day of October 1854, and in default of payment the stock will be forfeited and all previous payments thereon.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—The meeting in the various assembly districts of this county to send delegates to the Mineral Point republican convention will be held to-day at 2 o'clock, P. M., for this district being called at the court house. It is desirable that a selection of delegates should be made that will give character to the convention nominating a candidate for the support of the people, and will, at the same time, inspire confidence and give satisfaction to the masses at large. A judicious start will be of material aid in future movements.

SENATOR DOUGLAS IN CHICAGO.—The admirers of senator Douglas have professed the most unbounded confidence that when he came to meet his constituents face to face, the single-handed power of the "little giant" would prove equal to allaying the popular indignation against the Nebraska outrage, and that all the stout words which have been said against it and its architect, in his absence, would have to be eaten by those who uttered them, when once the senator should be released from his post at Washington and have leisure to attend to their cases. Well! the "vindication meeting" came off at Chicago on Friday evening last, and for once the potent demagogue from Illinois stood powerless before an abused, misrepresented and outraged constituency.

The Tribune states that no skill, no diplomacy, no expense were spared by the office-holders and toadies of the national administration to get up the affair and to have it result by fair means or foul in the endorsement of Douglas by Chicago. The railroad trains brought in hundreds of Douglas men from the country, from as far south as Springfield, that their presence might intimidate the citizens—a special police of twelve men from each ward was organized as a special body guard—twenty-five cents per head were paid to Irishmen to attend the meeting, and all that weeks of previous labor and hundreds of dollars expended could effect was used to render the affair successful and imposing.

On the other hand the flags of the shipping in port were displayed at half mast during the entire afternoon previous to the meeting—and at a quarter past six the bells of the city commenced to toll, and for more than an hour continued to fill the air with sounds befitting the popular sense of the disgrace which their senator was seeking to impose on the city.

When the hour of meeting arrived, Mr. Douglas had the satisfaction of meeting a crowd of about eight thousand people, a large majority of whom were not invited guests. His speech, following the Tribune's account, may be summed up as follows: For about one hour the senator was listened to with a good degree of patience and forbearance—though every pro-slavery sentiment was received with unmistakable evidences of indignation, and disarmed by groans and hisses.

"After sneaking for something more than an hour, and finding that the people regarded him very much as the people of the Revolution would have regarded Benedict Arnold, he came among them for the purpose of vindicating his treachery, and that they treated him in pretty much the same way as Arnold would have been treated, Douglas lost his temper, which up to this time he had preserved pretty well, and began to rave, and at the end of another hour his downfall was complete."

"He finally said that as he saw it was useless for him to proceed, he would leave the stand. Cries of good! good! He said, however, that he would not give it up! That he would speak again to the people, and that he would hear him. He would now leave the stand and resign it to the mob! He went off with his hat on his head, his face distorted with rage, and shaking his fist at the audience."

The democratic senatorial and assembly convention last Saturday chose Isaac Woodie and James Neil as delegates from the senatorial, and M. C. Smith from the assembly district. A set of resolutions very decidedly anti-administration and anti-Nebraska were introduced by a committee, but were considerably softened down or laid upon the table by the convention, though an anti-Nebraska character was retained.

FINE FRUIT.—We have been shown some very fine apples from the garden of Mr. Charles Stevens, in this city. Much of what he was raising was stolen by the thieving boys who infest the city, and a large share of the balance were picked while green, to keep them. Still those which were allowed to stay on the tree long enough to test their character, show them to be of large size and superior quality, and give hopes that when enough shall be raised for the boys and the growers, we shall have a home supply equal to the best imported.

A HINT.—If those people who put bells on their cows would keep them home at night, they would keep their nuisances where they belong and not impose them upon their neighbors. Besides, it might prevent a summary abatement by those suffering the infliction. So we are told.

Persons wishing to purchase building lots in this city, are invited to notice the advertisement in to-day's paper, offering two for sale.

C. K. Watkins and Judge Hubbell have had a controversy in the court of the latter, which ended in Watkins requesting his name might be stricken from the roll of attorneys in that court, as he should practice in it no longer.

Post Office Removed.—The post office in this city has been removed to the brick building of Lawrence, Strong & Co., opposite the American House.

BOOK ITEMS.
A JOURNEY TO CENTRAL AFRICA, &c. By BAYARD TAYLOR. G. F. Putnam & Co., 10 Park Place, New York.
We herald the announcement of this new work with more than ordinary pleasure. Comment upon it seems almost unnecessary, as very few we presume have ever heard of the accomplished author, will neglect to provide themselves with a copy of this most pleasing and attractive work. In reading this fanciful and poetical philosophical, "Nile Notes of the Howadi," we were steeped in a delicious dream of beauty, entrancing and almost bewildering, and after laying aside the fascinating book, could have no recollection but a confusion of glorious imagery, as if one had looked through a Claude Lorraine glass, until his eyes ached.

In the volume before us there is no such cloying sweetness, no putting a cork jacket of rhetoric under the arms of the reader to buoy him up. Those who have enjoyed the pleasure of meeting Mr. Taylor and conversing with him upon the subject of his travels, must remember the easy nonchalance with which he refers to incident by flood and field. Just so he writes: combining poet and artist, he worships with a calm and chaste enthusiasm at the shrine of nature and beauty, and we are content with his reflections. There is enough of poetry, pathos, humor and sentiment in them, combined with keen observation, blended by a light and airy grace of style, to stock a dozen would be traveler's note books. Mr. Taylor, in oblique loftiness of purpose, taste, energy, love of the beautiful and all that is heroic, would have made a fitting companion for Sir Walter Raleigh.

Reader, you will find his book at Sutherland's.

COOR.—The following reply of the Milwaukee Sentinel to our article of Saturday, exposing a misrepresentation by a garbled quotation from us, is refreshingly cool in this hot weather:

PLEASANT NEIGHBORS.—Our brief reference to the silly story, published in the Janesville Gazette, of an avowed determination on the part of the M. & M. R. R. company "to drive business from Janesville to the line of the road north," provokes from the Gazette a very angry attack upon the Sentinel. This is so much a matter of course in that quarter, that we shall not waste time in answering it. It is sufficient to know that the fiction itself has been exploded in the Gazette's columns by the card of Mr. Pease. If it is any relief to our unhappy cotemporary, under these circumstances, to blaze away at the Sentinel, it is entirely welcome to continue the sport just as long as its powder and patience last.

Of course, there is very little use of "blazing away" at a paper which is first willing to misrepresent a cotemporary, and then when the misrepresentation is exposed, altogether refuses a correction and adds to the original offence. The readers of the Sentinel are permitted to see only what suits the purposes of its conductors, and are seldom permitted to learn from its columns the real merits of any controversy in which it is engaged. "Powder and patience" would be wholly lost under such circumstances, and we shall allow the Sentinel to pursue its usual course unmolested, unless a more than ordinary aggravated case provokes another exposure.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—New and dangerous counterfeiters are now offering in our city; viz: $5 on the Oneida Valley Bank, Madison co., N. Y.; vignette, female and shield; it is the old counterfeit plate of the $5 bills altered to $5. The other is $10 on the Bank of Coming, N. Y.; vignette, two females and portrait of Washington; being the counterfeit ten of Lockport, altered to Coming, and is well calculated to deceive.

JANESVILLE CITY BANK.
For several days we have had lying upon our table, a bank note plate defecator from the office of John S. Dye's Bank Mirror, Cincinnati and New York, which must be extremely useful in cases of counterfeit like the above. The "Defecator" is designed to give an accurate description of every genuine note issued by every bank in the United States and British North America. By a comparison of the note as given in the "Defecator" with the bill offered, its character can be easily ascertained, if it is an alteration from a lower to a higher denomination, or from one bank to another. The first number of the Defecator only has been issued, containing 40 pages, and a description of the bills of the New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Brooklyn, Williamsburgh and Jersey City banks. The entire series it is calculated will require 500 pages, and the numbers will be issued as they can be prepared. In connection with this, Mr. Dye publishes his semi-monthly "Mirror," a book of counterfeit plates and a coin chart manual, all for $2 a year. New York office, No. 2, Maiden Lane; Cincinnati office, 43 Third street.

SHIPMENT OF FLOUR.—Jackman & Smith have shipped a thousand barrels of flour from new wheat since the late harvest. This is probably doing more than any other mill in the state, of the same capacity as theirs.

The whig state central committee of Michigan have called a state convention to meet at Marshall, the 4th of October next, to nominate candidates for state officers. The Detroit Tribune says:

"The convention has not been called to gratify the factious purposes of those who wish to use it to aid the locomotives, we feel satisfied, but for the sole purpose, of contributing to the success of the independent, anti-administration ticket, by re-nominating it. This will be done beyond a doubt, if the whigs take the matter in hand, as we are sure they will."

THE LAST RESORT.—The editor of the Kentucky Flag has been assaulted in the streets of Lexington by an Arkansas ruffian, set on by the Ward family, for publishing an article in relation to the murder of Butler, by that hopeful sprig of nobility, Matt Ward. The next move will be to take some one else who has offended the dignity of this "chivalrous" family.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—One of the largest congressional conventions ever held in Northern Illinois, took place at Rockford on Wednesday last. It resulted from a call of some fifty or more citizens (whigs, democrats, free-soilers and abolitionists) of the first district, who felt the absolute necessity of abandoning their petty quarrels about party, and of uniting, as one man, to resist, now and for all time to come the aggressive spirit of the pro-slavery party of the country. The proceedings of that convention will be found in another column of this paper; but though the resolutions are clear, decided, and to the point, even they fail to give an adequate idea of the spirit which actuated the masses who constituted the convention. The number present was not less than ten or twelve hundred, a large part of whom were regularly appointed delegates from other counties, every part of the district, from the lake to the Mississippi river, being largely and ably represented. In the organization, there was some little jealousy manifested, each of the members of the various old parties fearing lest he might be inviolated into resolutions intended for the benefit of persons in an opposite party. But when the principal actors came to understand each other all discord ceased. The chairman, Dr. Lyman, who is a fine specimen of a man, and an old Tammany Hall democrat, acted in a spirit of magnanimity which won its way to all hearts. His eloquence and ingenuities were irresistible. He said he had acted with the democratic party all his life, and had frequently voted against his convictions, but he had done so the last time. He desired a union of all who were opposed to slavery and in favor of freedom, a union which would be permanent and ultimate in practical results. He was followed by ex-Gov. Cobb, a whig, in a similar spirit, urging the necessity of prompt and manly action to defeat the plotters against liberty. He showed that so far as a national whig party was concerned it had no existence beyond a name. While northern whigs had acted with northern democrats, the southern whig members of congress, almost without exception, had counselled with and supported Douglas and the administration in their attempts to perpetuate and extend slavery. He also showed that it was impossible, in the very nature of things, to have a national whig or national democratic party. Northern whigs and democrats coalesced on the only principles at issue, and southern whigs and democrats united against him. Slavery was the issue, and even though the people of the free states would have avoided it if they could have done so with honor to themselves, they were not permitted to do so. It was forced upon them by southern whigs and democrats, acting as a unit. He therefore saw no honorable or safe alternative but the formation of a party which should embrace all the anti-slavery elements of the union, and to such a party he was ready and willing to attach himself.

Rev. M. P. Sweet, of Peru, (formerly a whig candidate for congress in the Rockford district,) followed in an eloquent speech, which elicited rounds of applause.

Hon. Thomas J. Turner, of Freeport, (former democratic member of congress from that district,) also spoke earnestly against the corruptions of the pro-slavery democratic party, and bore down with great severity upon Douglas and Pierce. He was not then prepared to say what he would do, but he could say that he would not vote any more for slavery.

When the resolutions were introduced they were taken up seriatim, and adopted unanimously and with enthusiasm. Before their adoption, however, Charles M. Clure, esq., an old whig of McHenry county, made a sensible and well-timed speech in support of the distinct movement which the resolutions contemplated, and Hon. T. J. Turner and James Loop, esq., cordially gave their endorsement and adhesion.

After the resolutions were adopted, the convention resolved to nominate a candidate for congress. Before doing which, however, Hon. E. B. Washburne was called upon the stand and in a powerful speech exposed the machinations of the slave power, as he had seen it working during his congressional career. He then complimented the convention for its boldness in cutting loose from all old political organizations, and declared that he stood with them on their platform ready hereafter to work as a republican.

After Mr. W. closed a speech of nearly half an hour, it was moved that he be nominated by acclamation, which was carried unanimously, amid cheering and huzzas.

Thus closed one of the most felicitous conventions we have ever attended, and it inaugurated a movement in Illinois which our confidence in the generous and noble impulses of the people make us believe will sweep over our prairies, and soon cause our state to stand as high, as the champion of liberty, as she has hitherto and does now stand low as the defender and propagator of slavery.—Chicago Tribune.

BUFFALO, August 20.
A democratic convention was held here to-day, to elect four delegates to the Syracuse convention. A good deal of excitement occurred, growing out of a double set of delegates, from the post office and custom house attempting to force their candidates upon the convention. They were, however, defeated—the issue being on the attempt to elect Nebraska delegates.—Benjamin Welch, Jr., editor of the Republic, and a strong anti-Nebraska man, received 15 out of 18 votes. P. Dorsheimer defeated a post office candidate, and E. A. Maynard and John Hubbell are elected. All are opposed to the Nebraska bill.

It is considered a withering rebuke for the attempt to Nebraskaize this anti-Nebraska city.

MILLER'S PATENT STEAM BRAKE.—Upon the invitation of our worthy townsman, HENRY MILLER, Esq., we, in company with a large number composed of editors, engineers, and railroad superintendents, took a short trip on the Pontiac railroad yesterday afternoon to witness the operation of Miller's Patent Steam Brake. This invention, we think, eventually do away with the present style of hand brakes in use. It is worked by means of a lever in the hands of the engineer. We are not able to describe it in detail, and so we will only give the result of our own observation.

The train was put under motion of thirty miles an hour, the signal for putting down the brake was given, and without the engine's being reversed at all, we were brought to a perfect standstill in twenty seconds. Much time is thus gained, and in case of anything being observed ahead on the track, the safety of the train is much enhanced by this brake, as the engineer can, without frightening any nervous old ladies with an awful shriek, stop the train instantly by letting steam into the brakes, and if danger be imminent, also reversing the engine. All present were highly gratified with the satisfactory evidence of its utility.

We learn from several engineers that when the pipes have been enlarged and the machinery perfected, the train can be stopped in a quarter less time, and without the least jar to the cars as under the old way. We were gratified at meeting among the excursionists, a large representation from the Great Western Railway.—Detroit Free Press.

THE OHIO STATE JOURNAL. publishes a letter to Samuel Galloway, signed by 162 prominent citizens of Licking county, inviting him to become the anti-Nebraska candidate for congress against Dr. Olds. A district convention to select a candidate, is to be held on the 30th inst. Galloway was beaten by Olds in 1852, by reason of a division in the whig ranks. Our friends are sure to be united at the coming election, and Olds will no doubt be defeated by a large majority.

GOING TO STRONG.—The steamers Ocean and Buckeye are making lively time between here and Cleveland, in running opposition. The Ocean yesterday advertised to carry passengers free, furnishing births in gent's cabin at 25 cents and state-rooms at 50 cents. Cheap enough.—Detroit Ad.

Janesville City Schools.
The clerks of the several school districts in the city of Janesville, will please bear in mind, that the revised school laws make it their duty, to report to the city superintendent of schools, by the fifteenth of September of each year. Said reports to be dated on the first day of the same month.

For further particulars, see section 30 of the revised school laws. JAMES SUTHERLAND, Superintendent of schools, for the city of Janesville, Aug. 31st, 1854.

THE MARKETS.

WARRANTY DEEDS for sale at this office.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The county agricultural fair takes place at Janesville, on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 13th and 14th. Such as intend to exhibit articles at that time, for sale or competition, should hurry up their preparations for the occasion. We expect to see Beal and vicinity figures largely on the premium horses and cattle, products of the field and garden, of mechanical skill, the ladies with their handiwork of use and ornament—let all be represented.—Beloit Journal.

From this it will be seen what our neighbors are invited to do, and what should be our own action in the matter. Heretofore many who have abstained from any participation in the fair, have afterwards expressed their regret, declaring that they might have exhibited something superior to what was awarded the premium. The only way in such a case is to enter as competitors, and if a really superior article can be shown, not allow an inferior one to obtain the credit. The fair is a local one, and needs the co-operation of all to make it what it ought and may be made. We hope there will be this year a large increase of exhibitors and articles over the last. The trouble necessary to prepare and transport for exhibition will be well repaid in the increased attraction and interest of the fair.

The Cleveland Herald says that many of the elms in that city are leafless, and others dying, in consequence of a drought. The maples are thinning out, the locusts are injured by insects, and only the native oak and chestnut survive, and even their foliage is turning to a premature yellow. The earth is baked and dry, and in some localities in the country, farmers are cutting down trees to feed their cattle on the leaves.

Recorder Wilson of Chicago, during a recent sitting of his court, sentenced 26 men and women to the state prison for terms running from 1 to 10 years, and in addition 16 were convicted of county jail sentences. No less than 74 indictments are still pending.

The paragraph we published a few days since, that Horace Greeley, Wm. B. Astor, P. T. Barnum, and other capitalists had purchased the row of buildings facing the Bowling Green, in New York, for the purpose of erecting there a mammoth hotel for the exclusive accommodation of colored people, is untrue. Some of the eastern dailies seem to be governed by the rule to publish a statement one day for the purpose of making a correction the next, and thus getting a paragraph for two.

PLEASANT GREETING.—The Wisconsin Pinery, (a democratic organ published at Stevens Point by Gen. A. G. Ellis, a Pierce land officer,) thus pleasantly refers to some of its former political associates:

ACCOMPANIES.—Gov. Barstow and "the balance" in their journey over from the territory of democracy to pirates land—opposition to the administration of the government—are, it is said, to have the company of Hon. Ben. C. Eastman!

The report of the proceedings of the Methodist conference in session at this place, for some reason unknown was not handed in for to-day's paper, and we are consequently unable to give it.

The banks of N. Y. city contracted $1,400,000 for the week ending on the 28th ult.—Of course the money market is tight.

The New York state loan for $1,000,000 was taken on the 31st of August, at 1,12a 1,10.

STEAMER LADY ELGIN SUNK.—This fine boat which left this port on Wednesday forenoon last with passengers and freight for Buffalo, struck a rock off Manitowish during the night and sunk soon after reaching the pier at that place. She lies with the water up to her main deck. She had about 300 passengers on board at the time, all of whom were got ashore in safety. Mr. Ward, the clerk, arrived here yesterday afternoon on the Cleveland, to obtain the services of a steam pump. It is thought the Lady Elgin will be raised without much damage.—Chicago Tribune.

M. C. SMITH & CO.
Janesville, May 19th, 1854.

Janesville Leather Store.

THE SUBSCRIBER is almost daily receiving additions to his STOCK of
Leather, Findings, and Saddlery Hardware,
from the Eastern Markets.

Those in the HARNESS and SHOE business can now obtain their supply of the best quality of leather, beautifully cut and colored, at a low price, and without any trouble, and without expense in traveling either to the Lake or farther East.

It appears that some of our friends have had a sudden change of opinion, and have come over from the people here and in this vicinity, but doubtless our customers will discover what the rate did in the table, that there was a cut in the white leather.

Also, received and receiving an extensive assortment of Boots & Shoes,
which are offered only at Wholesale, at prices 80 LOW, that all who wish to purchase, on examination will not be led to buy.

Location west side of River, on Milwaukee street, opposite the site of the Stevens House.

Cash Paid for Hides and Skins.
Please to give me a call, and perhaps our city may not in some respects be second to Milwaukee.

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843.
Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudent and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security to its policyholders, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and still economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no loss of his money beyond the amount of the insurance he is insured for.

The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

The company is insured for the benefit of the insured, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

UTICA LIFE STOCK INSURANCE COMPANY.
Capital, $50,000.

The undersigned has been duly appointed Agent of the above named companies, and is now prepared to take risks and issue policies upon all kinds of insurable property at the lowest rates of premium.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmer to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently they will have no losses, only their own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this connection such property is rejected positively, by acting thus ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar, too, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

The undersigned has been duly appointed Agent of the above named companies, and is now prepared to take risks and issue policies upon all kinds of insurable property at the lowest rates of premium.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmer to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently they will have no losses, only their own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this connection all such property is rejected positively, by acting thus ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—The meeting in the various assembly districts of this county to send delegates to the Mineral Point republican convention will be held to-day at 2 o'clock, P. M., for this district being called at the court house. It is desirable that a selection of delegates should be made that will give character to the convention nominating a candidate for the support of the people, and will, at the same time, inspire confidence and give satisfaction to the masses at home. A judicious start will be of material aid in future movements.

SENATOR DOUGLAS IN CHICAGO.—The admirers of senator Douglas have professed the most unbounded confidence that when he came to meet his constituents face to face, the single-handed power of the "little giant" would prove equal to allaying the popular indignation against the Nebraska outrage, and that all the stout words which have been said against it and its architect, in his absence, would have to be eaten by those who uttered them, when once the senator should be released from his post at Washington and have leisure to attend to their cases. Well the "vindication meeting" came off at Chicago, on Friday evening last, and for once the potent demagogue from Illinois stood powerless before an abused, misrepresented and outraged constituency.

The Tribune states that no skill, no diplomacy, no expense were spared by the office-holders and toolies of the national administration to get up the affair and to have it result by fair means or foul in the endorsement of Douglas by Chicago. The railroad trains brought in hundreds of Douglas men from the country, from as far south as Springfield, that their presence might intimidate the citizens—a special police of twelve men from each ward was organized as a special body guard—twenty-five cents per head were paid to Irishmen to attend the meeting, and all that weeks of previous labor and hundreds of dollars expended could effect was used to render the affair successful and imposing.

On the other hand the flags of the shipping in port were displayed at half mast during the entire afternoon previous to the meeting—and at a quarter past six the bells of the city commenced to toll, and for more than an hour continued to fill the air with sounds befitting the popular sense of the disgrace which their senator was seeking to impose on the city.

When the hour of meeting arrived, Mr. Douglas had the satisfaction of meeting a crowd of about eight thousand people, a large majority of whom were not invited guests. His speech, following the Tribune's account, may be summed up as follows: For about one hour the senator was listened to with a good degree of patience and forbearance—though every pro-slavery sentiment was received with unmistakable evidences of indignation, and disarmed by groans and hisses.

"After sneaking for something more than an hour, and finding that the people regarded him very much as the people of the Revolution would have regarded Benedict Arnold, he came among them for the purpose of vindicating his treachery, and that they treated him in pretty much the same way as Arnold would have been treated, Douglas lost his temper, which up to this time he had preserved pretty well, and began to rave, and at the end of another hour his downfall was complete."

"He finally said that as he saw it was useless for him to proceed, he would leave the stand. Cries of good! good! He said, however, that he would not give it up so! That he would speak again to the people, and that they should hear him. He would now leave the stand and resign it to the mob! He went off with his hat on his head, his face distorted with rage, and shaking his fist at the audience."

The democratic senatorial and assembly convention last Saturday chose Isaac Wood and James Neil as delegates from the senatorial, and M. C. Smith from the assembly district. A set of resolutions very decidedly anti-administration and anti-Nebraska were introduced by a committee, but were considerably softened down or laid upon the table by the convention, though an anti-Nebraska character was retained.

FINE FRUIT.—We have been shown some very fine apples from the garden of Mr. Charles Stevens, in this city. Much of what he was raising was stolen by the thieving boys who infest the city, and a large share of the balance were plucked while green, to keep them. Still those which were allowed to stay on the tree long enough to test their character, show them to be of large size and superior quality, and give hopes that when enough shall be raised for the boys and the grocers, we shall have a home supply equal to the best imported.

A HINT.—If those people who put bells on their cows would keep them home at night, they would keep their nuisances where they belong and not impose them upon their neighbors. Besides, it might prevent a summary abatement by those suffering the infliction. So we are told.

Persons wishing to purchase building lots in this city, are invited to notice the advertisement in to-day's paper, offering two for sale.

O. K. Watkins and Judge Hubbell have had a controversy in the court of the latter, which ended in Watkins requesting his name might be stricken from the roll of attorneys in that court, as he should practice in it no longer.

Post Office Removed.—The post office in this city has been removed to the brick building of Lawrence, Strong & Co., opposite the American House.

BOOK ITEMS.

A JOURNEY TO CENTRAL AFRICA, &c. BY HAYARD TAYLOR. G. P. Putnam & Co., 10 Park Place, New York.
We herald the announcement of this new work with more than ordinary pleasure. Comment upon it seems almost unnecessary, as very few we presume have ever heard of the accomplished author, will neglect to provide themselves with a copy of this most pleasing and attractive work. In reading this fanciful and poetical philosophical, "Nile Notes of the Howadi," we were steeped in a delicious dream of beauty, entrancing and almost bewildering, and after laying aside the fascinating book, could have no recollection but a confusion of glorious imagery, as if one had looked through a Claude Lorraine glass, until his eyes ached.

In the volume before us there is no such cloying sweetness, no putting a cork jacket of rhetoric under the arms of the reader to buoy him up. Those who have enjoyed the pleasure of meeting Mr. Taylor and conversing with him upon the subject of his travels, must remember the easy non-chalance with which he refers to incident by flood and field. Just so he writes; combining poet and artist, he worships with a calm and chaste enthusiasm at the shrine of nature and beauty, and we are content with his reflections. There is enough of poetry, pathos, humor and sentiment in them, combined with keen observation, blended by a light and airy grace of style, to stock a dozen would-be travelers' note books. Mr. Taylor, in chivalric loftiness of purpose, taste, energy, love of the beautiful and all that is heroic, would have made a fitting companion for Sir Walter Raleigh.

Reader, you will find his book at Sutherland's.

COOL.—The following reply of the Milwaukee Sentinel to our article of Saturday, exposing a misrepresentation by a garbled quotation from us, is refreshingly cool in this hot weather:

PLEASANT NEIGHBORS.—Our brief reference to the silly story, published in the Janesville Gazette, of an avowed determination on the part of the M. & M. R. R. company "to drive business from Janesville to the line of the road north," provokes from the Gazette a very angry attack upon the Sentinel. This is so much a matter of course in that quarter, that we shall not waste time in answering it. It is sufficient to know that the fiction itself has been exploded in the Gazette's columns by the card of Mr. Poase.

If it is any relief to our unhappy contemporary, under these circumstances, to blaze away at the Sentinel, it is entirely welcome to continue the sport just as long as its powder and patience last.

Of course, there is very little use of "blazing away" at a paper which is first willing to misrepresent a contemporary, and then when the misrepresentation is exposed, altogether refuses a correction and adds to the original offence. The readers of the Sentinel are permitted to see only what suits the purposes of its conductors, and are seldom permitted to learn from its columns the real merits of any controversy in which it is engaged. "Powder and patience" would be wholly lost under such circumstances, and we shall allow the Sentinel to pursue its usual course unmolested, unless a more than ordinary aggravated case provokes another exposure.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—Now and dangerous counterfeiters are now offering in our city; viz: $5 on the Oneida Valley Bank, Madison, Co., N. Y.; vignette, female and shield; it is the old counterfeit plate of the $3 bills altered to $5; The other is $10 on the Bank of Corning, N. Y.; vignette, two females and portrait of Washington; being the counterfeit ten of Lockport, altered to Corning, and is well calculated to deceive.

JANESVILLE CITY BANK.
For several days we have had lying upon our table a bank note plate delineator from the office of John S. Dye's Bank Mirror, Cincinnati and New York, which must be extremely useful in cases of counterfeiters like the above. The "Delineator" is designed to give an accurate description of every genuine note issued by every bank in the United States and British North America. By a comparison of the note as given in the "Delineator" with the bill offered, its character can be easily ascertained, if it is an alteration from a lower to a higher denomination, or from one bank to another. The first number of the Delineator only has been issued, containing 40 pages, and a description of the bills of the New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Brooklyn, Williamsburgh and Jersey City banks. The entire series it is calculated will require 500 pages, and the numbers will be issued as they can be prepared. In connection with this, Mr. Dye publishes his semi-monthly "Mirror," a book of counterfeit plates and a coin chart manual, all for $2 a year. New York office, No. 2, Maiden Lane; Cincinnati office, 43 Third street.

SURENESS OF FLOUR.—Jackson & Smith have shipped a thousand barrels of flour from new wheat since the late harvest. This is probably doing more than any other mill in the state, of the same capacity as theirs.

The whig state central committee of Michigan have called a state convention to meet at Marshall, the 4th of October next, to nominate candidates for state officers. The Detroit Tribune says:

"The convention has not been called to gratify the factious purposes of those who wish to use it to aid the localities to retain their power, but for the sole purpose, we feel satisfied, of contributing to the success of the independent, anti-administration ticket, by re-nominating it. This will be done beyond a doubt, if true whigs take the matter in hand, as we are sure they will."

THE LAST RESORT.—The editor of the Kentucky Flag has been assaulted in the streets of Lexington by an Arkansas ruffian, set on by the Ward family, for publishing an article in relation to the murder of Butler, by that hopeful sprig of nobility, Matt Ward. The next move will be to take some one else who has offended the dignity of this "chivalrous" family.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—One of the largest congressional conventions ever held in Northern Illinois, took place at Rockford on Wednesday last. It resulted from a call of some fifty or more citizens (whigs, democrats, free-soilers and abolitionists) of the first district, who felt the absolute necessity of abandoning their petty quarrels about party and of uniting, as one man, to resist, now and for all time to come the aggressive spirit of the pro-slavery party of the country. The proceedings of that convention will be found in another column of this paper; but though the resolutions are clear, decided, and to the point, even they fail to give an adequate idea of the spirit which actuated the masses who constituted the convention. The number present was not less than ten or twelve hundred, a large part of whom were regularly appointed delegates from other counties—every part of the district, from the late to the Mississippi river, being largely and ably represented. In the organization, there was some little jealousy manifested, each of the members of the various old parties fearing lest he might be inveigled into resolutions intended for the benefit of persons in an opposite party. But when the principal actors came to understand each other all discord ceased. The chairman, Dr. Lyman, who is a fine specimen of a man, and an old Tammany Hall democrat, acted in a spirit of magnanimity which won its way to all hearts. His eloquence and ingenuities were irresistible. He said he had acted with the democratic party all of his life, and had frequently voted against his convictions, but he had done so the last time. He desired a union of all who were opposed to slavery and in favor of freedom—a union which would be permanent and ultimate in practical results. He was followed by ex-Gov. Cobb, a whig, in a similar spirit, urging the necessity of prompt and manly action to defeat the plotters against liberty. He showed that so far as a national whig party was concerned it had no existence beyond a name. While northern whigs had acted with northern democrats, the southern whig members of congress, almost without exception, had counselled with and supported Douglas and the administration in their attempts to perpetuate and extend slavery. He also showed that it was impossible, in the very nature of things, to have a national whig or national democratic party. Northern whigs and democrats coalesced on the only principles at issue, and southern whigs and democrats united against him. Slavery was the issue, and even though the people of the free states would have avoided it if they could have done so with honor to themselves, they were not permitted to do so. It was forced upon them by southern whigs and democrats, acting as a unit. He therefore saw no honorable or safe alternative but the formation of a party which should embrace all the anti-slavery elements of the union, and to such a party he was ready and willing to attach himself.

Rev. M. P. Sweet, of Peru, (formerly a whig candidate for congress in the Rockford district,) followed in an eloquent speech, which elicited rounds of applause.

Hon. Thomas J. Turner, of Freeport, (former democratic member of congress from that district,) also spoke earnestly against the corruption of the pro-slavery democratic party, and here down with great severity upon Douglas and Pierce. He was not then prepared to say what he would do, but he could say that he would not vote any more for slavery.

When the resolutions were introduced they were taken up seriatim, and adopted unanimously and with enthusiasm. Before their adoption, however, Charles McClure, esq., an old whig of McHenry county, made a sensible and well-timed speech in support of the distinct movement which the resolutions contemplated, and Hon. T. J. Turner and James Loop, esq., cordially gave their endorsement and adhesion.

After the resolutions were adopted, the convention resolved to nominate a candidate for congress. Before doing which, however, Hon. E. B. Washburne was called upon the stand and in a powerful speech exposed the machinations of the slave power, as he had seen it working during his congressional career. He then complimented the convention for its boldness in cutting loose from all old political organizations, and declared that he stood with them on their platform ready hereafter to work as a republican.

After Mr. W. closed a speech of nearly half an hour, it was moved that he be nominated by acclamation, which was carried unanimously, amid cheering and huzzas.

Thus closed one of the most felicitous conventions we have ever attended, and it inaugurated a movement in Illinois which our confidence in the generous and noble impulses of the people make us believe will sweep over our prairies, and soon cause our state to stand as high, as the champion of liberty, as she has heretofore and does now stand low as the defender and propagator of slavery.—Chicago Tribune.

BUFFALO, August 20.
A democratic convention was held here to-day, to elect four delegates to the Syracuse convention.

A good deal of excitement occurred, growing out of a double set of delegates, from the post office and custom house attempting to force their candidates upon the convention. They were, however, defeated—the issue being on the attempt to elect Nebraska delegates. Benjamin Welch, Jr., editor of the Republic, and a strong anti-Nebraska man, received 16 out of 18 votes. P. Dorsheimer defeated a post office candidate, and E. A. Maynard and John Hubbell are elected. All are opposed to the Nebraska bill.

It is considered a withering rebuke for the attempt to Nebraskaize this anti-Nebraska city.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The county agricultural fair takes place at Janesville, on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 13th and 14th. Such as intend to exhibit articles at that time, for sale or competition, should hurry up their preparations for the occasion. We expect to see a lot of and vicinity figure largely on the premium list. Horses and cattle, products of the field and garden, of mechanical skill, the ladies with their handiwork of use and ornament—let all be represented.—Beloit Journal.

From this it will be seen what our neighbors are invited to do, and what should be our own action in the matter. Heretofore many who have abstained from any participation in the fair, have afterwards expressed their regret, declaring that they might have exhibited something superior to what was awarded the premium. The only way in such a case is to enter as competitors, and if a really superior article can be shown, not allow an inferior one to obtain the credit. The fair is a local one, and needs the co-operation of all to make it what it ought and may be made. We hope there will be this year a large increase of exhibitors and articles over the last. The trouble necessary to prepare and transport for exhibition will be well repaid in the increased attraction and interest of the fair.

The Cleveland Herald says that many of the elms in that city are leafless, and others dying, in consequence of a drought. The maples are thinning out, the locusts are injured by insects, and only the native oak and chestnut survive, and even their foliage is turning to a premature yellow. The earth is baked and dry, and in some localities in the country, farmers are cutting down trees to feed their cattle on the leaves.

Recorder Wilson of Chicago, during a recent sitting of his court, sentenced 26 men and women to the state prison for terms running from 1 to 10 years, and in addition 16 were convicted of county jail offences. No less than 74 indictments are still pending.

The paragraph we published a few days since, that Horace Greeley, Wm. B. Astor, P. T. Barnum, and other capitalists had purchased the row of buildings facing the Bowling Green, in New York, for the purpose of erecting there a mammoth hotel for the exclusive accommodation of colored people, is untrue. Some of the eastern dailies seem to be governed by the rule to publish a statement one day for the purpose of making a correction the next, and thus getting a paragraph for two.

PLEASANT GREETING.—The Wisconsin Pinery, (a democratic organ published at Stevens Point by Gen. A. G. Ellis, a Pierce land officer,) thus pleasantly refers to some of its former political associates:

ACCOMPANIED.—Gov. Barstow and "the balance," in their journey over from the territory of democracy to pirates land—opposition to the administration of the government—are, it is said, to have the company of Hon. Ben. O. Eastman!

The report of the proceedings of the Methodist conference in session at this place, for some reason unknown was not handed in to to-day's paper, and we are consequently unable to give it.

The banks of N. Y. city contracted $1,400,000 for the week ending on the 26th ult.—Of course the money market is tight.

The New York state loan for $1,000,000 was taken on the 31st of August, at 1,124,16.

STEAMER LADY ELGIN SUNK.—This fine boat which left this port on Wednesday forenoon last with passengers and freight for Buffalo, struck a rock off Manitowish during the night and sunk soon after reaching the pier at that place. She lies with the water up to her main deck. She had about 300 passengers on board at the time, all of whom were got ashore in safety. Mr. Ward, the clerk, arrived here yesterday afternoon on the Cleveland, to obtain the services of a steam pump. It is thought the Lady Elgin will be raised without much damage.—Chicago Tribune.

The Ohio State Journal publishes a letter to Samuel Galloway, signed by 152 prominent citizens of Licking county, inviting him to become the anti-Nebraska candidate for congress against Dr. Olds. A district convention to select a candidate, is to be held on the 30th inst. Galloway was beaten by Olds in 1852, by reason of a division in the whig ranks. Our friends are sure to be united at the coming election, and Olds will no doubt be defeated by a large majority.

GOING IT STRONG.—The steamers Ocean and Buckeye are making lively time between here and Cleveland, in running opposition. The Ocean yesterday advertised to carry passengers free, furnishing births in gent's cabin at 25 cents and state-rooms at 50 cents. Cheap enough.—Detroit Ad.

Janesville City Schools.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated United States pianist, has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its construction, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Home Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $400, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches and private families that value their money, we think they have more power than any common Organ costing $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of the above Organ, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—The meeting in the various assembly districts of this county to send delegates to the Mineral Point republican convention will be held to-day at 2 o'clock, P. M., for this district being called at the court house. It is desirable that a selection of delegates should be made that will give character to the convention nominating a candidate for the support of the people, and will, at the same time, inspire confidence and give satisfaction to the masses at home. A judicious start will be of material aid in future movements.

SENATOR DOUGLAS IN CHICAGO.—The admirers of senator Douglas have professed the most unbounded confidence that when he came to meet his constituents face to face, the single-handed power of the "little giant" would prove equal to allaying the popular indignation against the Nebraska outrage, and that all the stout words which have been said against it and its architect, in his absence, would have to be eaten by those who uttered them, when once the senator should be released from his post at Washington and have leisure to attend to their cases. Well the "vindication meeting" came off at Chicago, on Friday evening last, and for once the potent demagogue from Illinois stood powerless before an abused, misrepresented and outraged constituency.

The Tribune states that no skill, no diplomacy, no expense were spared by the office-holders and toolies of the national administration to get up the affair and to have it result by fair means or foul in the endorsement of Douglas by Chicago. The railroad trains brought in hundreds of Douglas men from the country, from as far south as Springfield, that their presence might intimidate the citizens—a special police of twelve men from each ward was organized as a special body guard—twenty-five cents per head were paid to Irishmen to attend the meeting, and all that weeks of previous labor and hundreds of dollars expended could effect was used to render the affair successful and imposing.

On the other hand the flags of the shipping in port were displayed at half mast during the entire afternoon previous to the meeting—and at a quarter past six the bells of the city commenced to toll, and for more than an hour continued to fill the air with sounds befitting the popular sense of the disgrace which their senator was seeking to impose on the city.

When the hour of meeting arrived, Mr. Douglas had the satisfaction of meeting a crowd of about eight thousand people, a large majority of whom were not invited guests. His speech, following the Tribune's account, may be summed up as follows: For about one hour the senator was listened to with a good degree of patience and forbearance—though every pro-slavery sentiment was received with unmistakable evidences of indignation, and disarmed by groans and hisses.

"After sneaking for something more than an hour, and finding that the people regarded him very much as the people of the Revolution would have regarded Benedict Arnold, he came among them for the purpose of vindicating his treachery, and that they treated him in pretty much the same way as Arnold would have been treated, Douglas lost his temper, which up to this time he had preserved pretty well, and began to rave, and at the end of another hour his downfall was complete."

"He finally said that as he saw it was useless for him to proceed, he would leave the stand. Cries of good! good! He said, however, that he would not give it up so! That he would speak again to the people, and that they should hear him. He would now leave the stand and resign it to the mob! He went off with his hat on his head, his face distorted with rage, and shaking his fist at the audience."

The democratic senatorial and assembly convention last Saturday chose Isaac Wood and James Neil as delegates from the senatorial, and M. C. Smith from the assembly district. A set of resolutions very decidedly anti-administration and anti-Nebraska were introduced by a committee, but were considerably softened down or laid upon the table by the convention, though an anti-Nebraska character was retained.

FINE FRUIT.—We have been shown some very fine apples from the garden of Mr. Charles Stevens, in this city. Much of what he was raising was stolen by the thieving boys who infest the city, and a large share of the balance were plucked while green, to keep them. Still those which were allowed to stay on the tree long enough to test their character, show them to be of large size and superior quality, and give hopes that when enough shall be raised for the boys and the grocers, we shall have a home supply equal to the best imported.

A HINT.—If those people who put bells on their cows would keep them home at night, they would keep their nuisances where they belong and not impose them upon their neighbors. Besides, it might prevent a summary abatement by those suffering the infliction. So we are told.

Persons wishing to purchase building lots in this city, are invited to notice the advertisement in to-day's paper, offering two for sale.

O. K. Watkins and Judge Hubbell have had a controversy in the court of the latter, which ended in Watkins requesting his name might be stricken from the roll of attorneys in that court, as he should practice in it no longer.

Post Office Removed.—The post office in this city has been removed to the brick building of Lawrence, Strong & Co., opposite the American House.

BOOK ITEMS.

A JOURNEY TO CENTRAL AFRICA, &c. BY HAYARD TAYLOR. G. P. Putnam & Co., 10 Park Place, New York.
We herald the announcement of this new work with more than ordinary pleasure. Comment upon it seems almost unnecessary, as very few we presume have ever heard of the accomplished author, will neglect to provide themselves with a copy of this most pleasing and attractive work. In reading this fanciful and poetical philosophical, "Nile Notes of the Howadi," we were steeped in a delicious dream of beauty, entrancing and almost bewildering, and after laying aside the fascinating book, could have no recollection but a confusion of glorious imagery, as if one had looked through a Claude Lorraine glass, until his eyes ached.

In the volume before us there is no such cloying sweetness, no putting a cork jacket of rhetoric under the arms of the reader to buoy him up. Those who have enjoyed the pleasure of meeting Mr. Taylor and conversing with him upon the subject of his travels, must remember the easy non-chalance with which he refers to incident by flood and field. Just so he writes; combining poet and artist, he worships with a calm and chaste enthusiasm at the shrine of nature and beauty, and we are content with his reflections. There is enough of poetry, pathos, humor and sentiment in them, combined with keen observation, blended by a light and airy grace of style, to stock a dozen would-be travelers' note books. Mr. Taylor, in chivalric loftiness of purpose, taste, energy, love of the beautiful and all that is heroic, would have made a fitting companion for Sir Walter Raleigh.

Reader, you will find his book at Sutherland's.

COOL.—The following reply of the Milwaukee Sentinel to our article of Saturday, exposing a misrepresentation by a garbled quotation from us, is refreshingly cool in this hot weather:

PLEASANT NEIGHBORS.—Our brief reference to the silly story, published in the Janesville Gazette, of an avowed determination on the part of the M. & M. R. R. company "to drive business from Janesville to the line of the road north," provokes from the Gazette a very angry attack upon the Sentinel. This is so much a matter of course in that quarter, that we shall not waste time in answering it. It is sufficient to know that the fiction itself has been exploded in the Gazette's columns by the card of Mr. Poase.

If it is any relief to our unhappy contemporary, under these circumstances, to blaze away at the Sentinel, it is entirely welcome to continue the sport just as long as its powder and patience last.

Of course, there is very little use of "blazing away" at a paper which is first willing to misrepresent a contemporary, and then when the misrepresentation is exposed, altogether refuses a correction and adds to the original offence. The readers of the Sentinel are permitted to see only what suits the purposes of its conductors, and are seldom permitted to learn from its columns the real merits of any controversy in which it is engaged. "Powder and patience" would be wholly lost under such circumstances, and we shall allow the Sentinel to pursue its usual course unmolested, unless a more than ordinary aggravated case provokes another exposure.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—Now and dangerous counterfeiters are now offering in our city; viz: $5 on the Oneida Valley Bank, Madison, Co., N. Y.; vignette, female and shield; it is the old counterfeit plate of the $3 bills altered to $5; The other is $10 on the Bank of Corning, N. Y.; vignette, two females and portrait of Washington; being the counterfeit ten of Lockport, altered to Corning, and is well calculated to deceive.

JANESVILLE CITY BANK.
For several days we have had lying upon our table a bank note plate delineator from the office of John S. Dye's Bank Mirror, Cincinnati and New York, which must be extremely useful in cases of counterfeit like the above. The "Delineator" is designed to give an accurate description of every genuine note issued by every bank in the United States and British North America. By a comparison of the note as given in the "Delineator" with the bill offered, its character can be easily ascertained, if it is an alteration from a lower to a higher denomination, or from one bank to another. The first number of the Delineator only has been issued, containing 40 pages, and a description of the bills of the New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Brooklyn, Williamsburgh and Jersey City banks. The entire series of it is calculated will require 500 pages, and the numbers will be issued as they can be prepared. In connection with this, Mr. Dye publishes his semi-monthly "Mirror," a book of counterfeit plates and a coin chart manual, all for $2 a year. New York office, No. 2, Maiden Lane; Cincinnati office, 43 Third street.

SURENESS OF FLOUR.—Jackson & Smith have shipped a thousand barrels of flour from new wheat since the late harvest. This is probably doing more than any other mill in the state, of the same capacity as theirs.

The whig state central committee of Michigan have called a state convention to meet at Marshall, the 4th of October next, to nominate candidates for state officers. The Detroit Tribune says:

"The convention has not been called to gratify the factious purposes of those who wish to use it to aid the localities to retain their power, but for the sole purpose, we feel satisfied, of contributing to the success of the independent, anti-administration ticket, by re-nominating it. This will be done beyond a doubt, if true whigs take the matter in hand, as we are sure they will."

THE LAST RESORT.—The editor of the Kentucky Flag has been assaulted in the streets of Lexington by an Arkansas ruffian, set on by the Ward family, for publishing an article in relation to the murder of Butler, by that hopeful sprig of nobility, Matt Ward. The next move will be to take some one else who has offended the dignity of this "chivalrous" family.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—One of the largest congressional conventions ever held in Northern Illinois, took place at Rockford on Wednesday last. It resulted from a call of some fifty or more citizens (whigs, democrats, free-soilers and abolitionists) of the first district, who felt the absolute necessity of abandoning their petty quarrels about party and of uniting, as one man, to resist, now and for all time to come the aggressive spirit of the pro-slavery party of the country. The proceedings of that convention will be found in another column of this paper; but though the resolutions are clear, decided, and to the point, even they fail to give an adequate idea of the spirit which actuated the masses who constituted the convention. The number present was not less than ten or twelve hundred, a large part of whom were regularly appointed delegates from other counties—every part of the district, from the late to the Mississippi river, being largely and ably represented. In the organization, there was some little jealousy manifested, each of the members of the various old parties fearing lest he might be inveigled into resolutions intended for the benefit of persons in an opposite party. But when the principal actors came to understand each other all discord ceased. The chairman, Dr. Lyman, who is a fine specimen of a man, and an old Tammany Hall demagogue, acted in a spirit of magnanimity which won its way to all hearts. His eloquence and ingenuities were irresistible. He said he had acted with the democratic party all of his life, and had frequently voted against his convictions, but he had done so the last time. He desired a union of all who were opposed to slavery and in favor of freedom—a union which would be permanent and ultimate in practical results. He was followed by ex-Gov. Cobb, a whig, in a similar spirit, urging the necessity of prompt and manly action to defeat the plotters against liberty. He showed that so far as a national whig party was concerned it had no existence beyond a name. While northern whigs had acted with northern democrats, the southern whig members of congress, almost without exception, had counselled with and supported Douglas and the administration in their attempts to perpetuate and extend slavery. He also showed that it was impossible, in the very nature of things, to have a national whig or national democratic party. Northern whigs and democrats coalesced on the only principles at issue, and southern whigs and democrats united against him. Slavery was the issue, and even though the people of the free states would have avoided it if they could have done so with honor to themselves, they were not permitted to do so. It was forced upon them by southern whigs and democrats, acting as a unit. He therefore saw no honorable or safe alternative but the formation of a party which should embrace all the anti-slavery elements of the union, and to such a party he was ready and willing to attach himself.

Rev. M. P. Sweet, of Peru, (formerly a whig candidate for congress in the Rockford district,) followed in an eloquent speech, which elicited rounds of applause.

Hon. Thomas J. Turner, of Freeport, (former democratic member of congress from that district,) also spoke earnestly against the corruption of the pro-slavery democratic party, and here down with great severity upon Douglas and Pierce. He was not then prepared to say what he would do, but he could say that he would not vote any more for slavery.

When the resolutions were introduced they were taken up seriatim, and adopted unanimously and with enthusiasm. Before their adoption, however, Charles McClure, esq., an old whig of McHenry county, made a sensible and well-timed speech in support of the distinct movement which the resolutions contemplated, and Hon. T. J. Turner and James Loop, esq., cordially gave their endorsement and adhesion.

After the resolutions were adopted, the convention resolved to nominate a candidate for congress. Before doing which, however, Hon. E. B. Washburne was called upon the stand and in a powerful speech exposed the machinations of the slave power, as he had seen it working during his congressional career. He then complimented the convention for its boldness in cutting loose from all old political organizations, and declared that he stood with them on their platform ready hereafter to work as a republican.

After Mr. W. closed a speech of nearly half an hour, it was moved that he be nominated by acclamation, which was carried unanimously, amid cheering and huzzas.

Thus closed one of the most felicitous conventions we have ever attended, and it inaugurated a movement in Illinois which our confidence in the generous and noble impulses of the people make us believe will sweep over our prairies, and soon cause our state to stand as high, as the champion of liberty, as she has heretofore and does now stand low as the defender and propagator of slavery.—Chicago Tribune.

BUFFALO, August 20.
A democratic convention was held here to-day, to elect four delegates to the Syracuse convention.

A good deal of excitement occurred, growing out of a double set of delegates, from the post office and custom house attempting to force their candidates upon the convention. They were, however, defeated—the issue being on the attempt to elect Nebraska delegates. Benjamin Welch, Jr., editor of the Republic, and a strong anti-Nebraska man, received 16 out of 18 votes. P. Dorsheimer defeated a post office candidate, and E. A. Maynard and John Hubbell are elected. All are opposed to the Nebraska bill.

It is considered a withering rebuke for the attempt to Nebraskaize this anti-Nebraska city.

MILLER'S PATENT STEAM BRAKE.—Upon the invitation of our worthy townsman, HENRY MILLER, Esq., we, in company with a large number composed of editors, engineers, and railroad superintendents, took a short trip on the Pontiac railroad yesterday afternoon to witness the operation of "Miller's Patent Steam Brake." This invention, will we think, eventually do away with the present style of hand brakes in use. It is worked by means of a lever in the hands of the engineer. We are not able to describe it in detail, and so we will only give the result of our own observation.

The train was put under motion of thirty miles an hour, the signal for putting down the brake was given, and, without the engine's being reversed at all, we were brought to a perfect standstill in twenty seconds. Much time is thus gained, and in case of anything being observed ahead on the track, the safety of the train is much enhanced by this brake, as the engineer can, without frightening any nervous old ladies with an awful shriek, stop the train instantly by letting steam into the brakes, and if danger be imminent, also reversing the engine. All present were highly gratified with the satisfactory evidence of its utility.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The county agricultural fair takes place at Janesville, on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 13th and 14th. Such as intend to exhibit articles at that time, for sale or competition, should hurry up their preparations for the occasion. We expect to see a lot of and vicinity figure largely on the premium list. Horses and cattle, products of the field and garden, of mechanical skill, the ladies with their handiwork of use and ornament—let all be represented.—Beloit Journal.

From this it will be seen what our neighbors are invited to do, and what should be our own action in the matter. Heretofore many who have abstained from any participation in the fair, have afterwards expressed their regret, declaring that they might have exhibited something superior to what was awarded the premium. The only way in such a case is to enter as competitors, and if a really superior article can be shown, not allow an inferior one to obtain the credit. The fair is a local one, and needs the co-operation of all to make it what it ought and may be made. We hope there will be this year a large increase of exhibitors and articles over the last. The trouble necessary to prepare and transport for exhibition will be well repaid in the increased attraction and interest of the fair.

The Cleveland Herald says that many of the elms in that city are leafless, and others dying, in consequence of a drought. The maples are thinning out, the locusts are injured by insects, and only the native oak and chestnut survive, and even their foliage is turning to a premature yellow. The earth is baked and dry, and in some localities in the country, farmers are cutting down trees to feed their cattle on the leaves.

Recorder Wilson of Chicago, during a recent sitting of his court, sentenced 26 men and women to the state prison for terms running from 1 to 10 years, and in addition 16 were convicted of county jail offences. No less than 74 indictments are still pending.

The paragraph we published a few days since, that Horace Greeley, Wm. B. Astor, P. T. Barnum, and other capitalists had purchased the row of buildings facing the Bowling Green, in New York, for the purpose of erecting there a mammoth hotel for the exclusive accommodation of colored people, is untrue. Some of the eastern dailies seem to be governed by the rule to publish a statement one day for the purpose of making a correction the next, and thus getting a paragraph for two.

PLEASANT GREETING.—The Wisconsin Pinery, (a democratic organ published at Stevens Point by Gen. A. G. Ellis, a Pierce land officer,) thus pleasantly refers to some of its former political associates:

ACCOMPANIED.—Gov. Barstow and "the balance" in their journey over from the territory of democracy to pirates land—opposition to the administration of the government—are, it is said, to have the company of Hon. Ben. O. Eastman!

The report of the proceedings of the Methodist conference in session at this place, for some reason unknown was not handed in to to-day's paper, and we are consequently unable to give it.

The banks of N. Y. city contracted $1,400,000 for the week ending on the 26th ult.—Of course the money market is tight.

The New York state loan for $1,000,000 was taken on the 31st of August, at 1,124,16.

STEAMER LADY ELGIN SUNK.—This fine boat which left this port on Wednesday forenoon last with passengers and freight for Buffalo, struck a rock off Manitowish during the night and sunk soon after reaching the pier at that place. She lies with the water up to her main deck. She had about 300 passengers on board at the time, all of whom were got ashore in safety. Mr. Ward, the clerk, arrived here yesterday afternoon on the Cleveland, to obtain the services of a steam pump. It is thought the Lady Elgin will be raised without much damage.—Chicago Tribune.

The Ohio State Journal publishes a letter to Samuel Galloway, signed by 152 prominent citizens of Licking county, inviting him to become the anti-Nebraska candidate for congress against Dr. Olds. A district convention to select a candidate, is to be held on the 30th inst. Galloway was beaten by Olds in 1852, by reason of a division in the whig ranks. Our friends are sure to be united at the coming election, and Olds will no doubt be defeated by a large majority.

GOING IT STRONG.—The steamers Ocean and Buckeye are making lively time between here and Cleveland, in running opposition. The Ocean yesterday advertised to carry passengers free, furnishing births in gent's cabin at 25 cents and state-rooms at 50 cents. Cheap enough.—Detroit Ad.

Janesville City Schools.
The clerks of the several school districts in the city of Janesville, will please bear in mind, that the revised school laws make it their duty, to report to the city superintendent of schools, by the fifteenth of September of each year. Said reports to be dated on the first day of the same month.

For further particulars, see section 80 of the revised school laws. JAMES SUTHERLAND, Superintendent of schools, for the city of Janesville, Aug. 31st, 1854.
